This book,
the humble effort
of the undergraduates of Assumption College, is dedicated to the residents of the City of Windsor and the County of Essex whose hospitality, unfailing support, and great good humour the students of their university have long enjoyed. Accordingly, this edition of the Ambassador is offered by these same undergraduates as a mark of gratitude, and an earnest of future service.

INTRODUCTION

Here, then, I conceive, is the object of the Holy See and the Catholic Church in setting up universities; it is to reunite things that were in the beginning joined together by God, and have been put asunder by man. . . . It will not satisfy me, what satisfies so many, to have two independent systems, intellectual and religious, going at once side by side, by a sort of division of labour, and only accidentally brought together. It will not satisfy me, if religion is here and science is there, and young men converse with science all day and lodge with religion in the evening. . . . I wish the intellect to range with the utmost freedom, and religion to enjoy an equal freedom, but what I am stipulating is, that they should be found in one and the same place, and exemplified in the same persons.

AMBASSADOR
BRIDGE

SPRING FEVER IN SEPTEMBER

. . . I do not want growth, except of course for the sake of the souls of those who are the increment;

. . . I would aim primarily at organization, edification, cultivation of the mind, growth of reason.

It is a moral force, not a material, which will vindicate . . .

ADMINISTRATION

THE CHANCELLOR

MOST REV. J. C. CODY, LL.D., BISHOP OF LONDON

My dear friends:

Since your theme for this year centres around the illustrious and saintly Cardinal Newman, please note that one of his favourite topics and points of meditation was the loving Providence of Almighty God. What a perennial fountain of blessing and consolation will be yours if you follow his example with child-like reverence often reflecting as he did: "God beholds thee individually, whoever thou art. He calls thee by thy name. He sees thee, and understands thee, as He made thee. He knows what is in thee, all thy own peculiar feelings and thoughts, thy dispositions and likings, thy strength and thy weakness. He views thee in thy day of rejoicing, and thy day of sorrow. He sympathizes in thy hopes and thy temptations. He interests Himself in all thy anxieties and remembrances, all the risings and fallings of thy spirit. He has numbered the very hairs of thy head and the cubits of thy stature. He compasses thee round and bears thee in His arms; He takes thee up and sets thee down. He notes thy very countenance, whether healthful or sickly. He looks tenderly upon thy hands and feet; He hears thy voice, the beating of thy heart, and thy very breathing. Thou dost not love thyself better than He loves thee. Thou canst not shrink from pain more than He dislikes thy bearing it; and if He puts it on thee, it is as thou wilt put it on thyself, if thou art wise, for a greater good afterwards."

Devotedly yours in Christ,

+ John C Cody

Bishop of London

THE VICE-CHANCELLOR AND PRESIDENT

My Dear Students:

Another academic year is just about over and I hope each of you has benefited a great deal. You, after all, are the persons by whom the outside world will judge this institution and we hope that wherever you may go you will carry with you the ideals, the learning and the character development which the Assumption staff has tried to inculcate.

Like persons, institutions develop with the years. We also hope that the larger responsibilities, which Assumption is asuming in the univerity field, will manifest wisdom and understanding. It is the intention of the administrative officers of the university to do all in their power to widen, develop and improve the educational facilities for the students of Windsor and its environment.

Let us all hope and pray that the future will see realized the laudable ambitions of all of us.

God be with us all.

Sincerely,

E. C. LeBEL, C.S.B.

A university training is the great ordinary means to a great but ordinary end: it aims at raising the intellectual tone of society, at cultivating the public mind, at purifying the national taste, at supplying true principles to popular enthusiasm and fixed aims to popular aspiration, at giving enlargement and sobriety to the ideas of the age, at facilitating the exercise of political power and refining the intercourse of private life.

CANDIDATES FOR DEGREES

THE PRESIDENT OF THE SENIOR CLASS

BERNARD O'CONNELL

The students of the graduating class are grateful for having had the privileged opportunity of seeking a Christian education at a college whose atmosphere is congenial and whose standards are eminent.

We are especially thankful to the Basilian Fathers and professors who have succeeded so well in guiding us along the road to goodness, discipline and knowledge.

It is our hope and prayer that all members of this class will ever cherish the principles instilled into them at Assumption, and so reach happiness and success in their various walks of life.

ASSUMPTION

The Year Book!
Yet not a book but a way of life.
A golden cover—its door!

A life . . .
Loved by those who live it,
Bountiful to those who indulge in it,
Surpassing any other,
Because it is Assumption's.

Those who have stood near it have felt the delicate mist of a fountain of fruitful life.
Those who have lived it have sensed the contenting touch of its cool waters.
Those who have indulged in it have known the delightful fecundity of its taste . . .

Glossy pictured pages!
Communicating a spirit impossible to know from without!
Remembering rich true friendships unstained by the egoistic attitude of a material world!
Conveying the Christian ardour of a group, learning together, that it might better know its God!

Would that infinity were the limit of these pages!
Would that such life could be grasped as easily as this book can be held!
Yet time know not pause!
Too soon, the world is the only path before us . . .

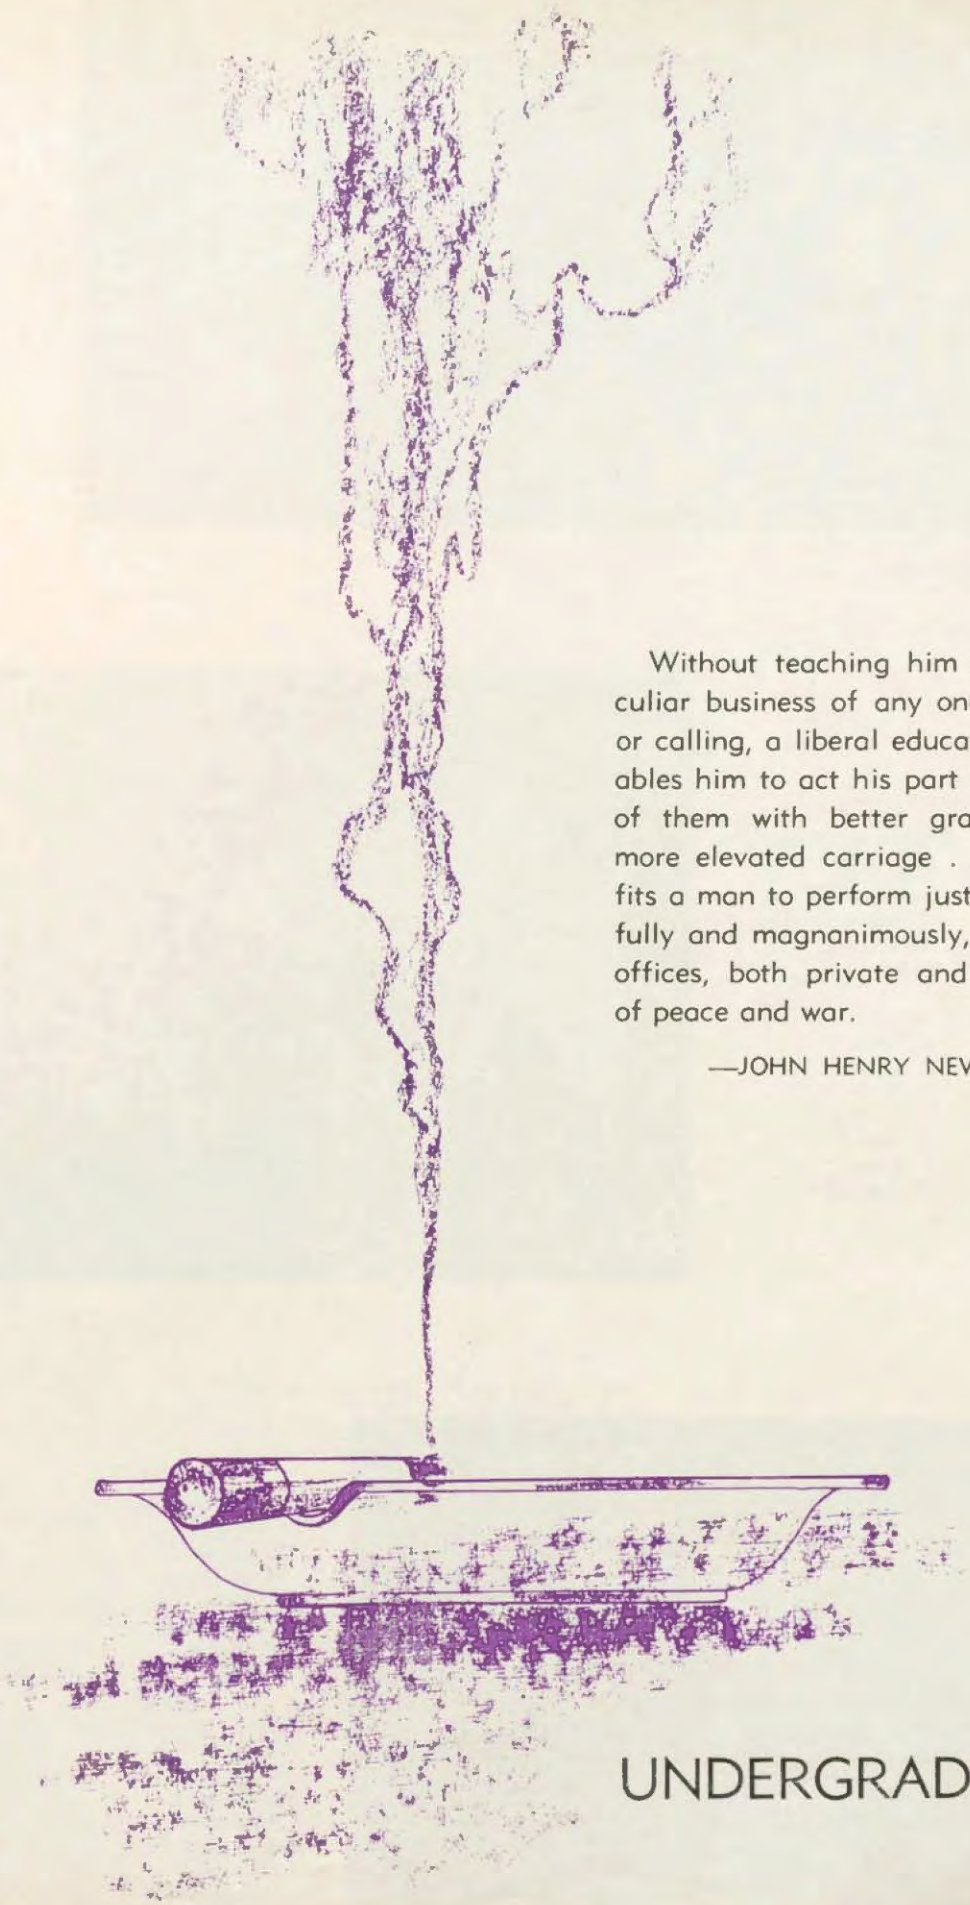

But we face it together,
Grateful for the undying devotion of our professors,
Bound by a friendship rich with the ideals of Christianity
Imbibed with the principles of well-living
Walking forth in the fear and the love of God!

And too, this happy life is not gone forever,
When wanted,
These pages will remember it.

Without teaching him the peculiar business of any one office or calling, a liberal education enables him to act his part in each of them with better grace and more elevated carriage . . . and fits a man to perform justly, skilfully and magnanimously, all the offices, both private and public, of peace and war.

Some men are called to a more particular role in the service of Christ. Such are these young men who aspire to the priesthood, the Basilian priesthood. Before them is a life generously offered to the ideal of Christian Education. They hope to devote themselves to this ideal in the specific way counselled by the Basilian Fathers' motto,
"Teach me goodness, discipline and knowledge."

At this point in their life of service, they are endeavouring to live the principles which they hope to communicate to others.

Goodness for them is not mere social propriety but an intellectual and moral perfection which conform to the teachings of their One and Only Master. The "Discipline" which they seek to acquire, is not an empty conformity to human rules and purposeless demeanour, but the fullness of Christ Jesus in all their thoughts, words and deeds.

Although they are aware that "Knowledge" for the hungry intellect of man is a good desirable in itself, they have a higher motive of Christian Charity in their search for it. They hope that after selflessly seeking it themselves, after perfecting their God given nature, after finding God more clearly reflected in the intelligent order of His Creation, to be able to minister this "Knowledge" to others.

All truth, Revelation, Philosophy, Science and Art are the objects of their contemplation. In these and by these they hope to perfect themselves and others.

By the application of all they have learned, to their own lives, they aspire to become worthy of the love of God so perfectly expressed in the Redemption, and to spread here on earth the Kingdom of God, by guiding all men and things in "Restoring all things in Christ.',

It is the place where the professor becomes eloquent, and is a missionary and preacher, displaying his science in its most complete and most winning form, pouring it forth with the zeal of enthusiasm, and lighting up his own love of it in the breasts of his hearers. It is the place where the catechist makes good his ground as he goes, treading in the truth day by day into the ready memory and wedging and tightening it into the expanding reason.

The novelty of place and circumstance, the excitement of strange, or the refreshment of well-known faces . . . the amiable charities of men pleased with themselves and with each other; the elevated spirits, the circulation of thought, the curiosity; the morning sections, the outdoor exercise . . . the not ungraceful hilarity, the evening circle . . . these and the like constituents . . . are considered something real and substantial for the advance of knowledge which can be done in no other way.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

For many of us our college careers are fast coming to an end. We will no longer be subject to the maternal care of our Alma Mater, nor the paternal guidance of the Basilian Fathers. Our hour is at hand.

Pray God that we have the courage and convictions to practice the ideals we have learned here at Assumption. If we keep these ideals before us throughout our lives, we will fulfill the purpose of our college education—the good life.

THE ASSUMPTION UNIVERSITY CONCERT BAND

The first concert of the new band held at Assumption High School Auditorium, December 15, 1955.

Mr. Hart, M.M., Director of the Band

Commendable indeed were the purpose, objective and achievement of the Assumption University Concert Band, which was heard in a premiere concert, in the new Assumption High School Auditorium. Frank Hart, M.M., conducted the event acclaimed by a most enthusiastic audience.

The band is a student organization prompted by the sincerity of young musicians and encouraged by Fr. E. C. LeBel, C.S.B., the university president. Bob Knuckle, Student Conductor consulted Fr. LeBel, who granted permission for the experiment.

In organizing the concert program, Mr. Hart, the popular director, included music from all fields, jazz to Handel, and for added spice the band took its audience musically to the land of rhumbas and sambas.

Due to the efforts of Mr. Frank Hart, M.M., the conductor, Fr. R. S. Pazik, C.S.B., the moderator, Bob Knuckle, student conductor and Denis Deneau, business manager, the organization achieved a fair measure of success.

Christian Culture Series

The twenty-second season brought to our midst: Bishop Fulton J. Sheen, John B. Kennedy, Elizabeth Bowen, Roy Campbell, Fr. J. D'Sousa, S.J., Fenton Moran, Eric Newton, Richard Pattee, Abraham Klein, Barry Ulanov, Players Inc. of Washington in "King Lear," Fr. Sidney MacEwan, Vienna Choir Boys, Geraldine Fahey, Glenn Gould, full Detroit Symphony Orchestra for three concerts, two conducted by Paul Paray and one by Valter Poole.

The Assumption College Christian Culture Award to some "Outstanding Lay-Exponent of Christian Ideals," which in past years went to: Sigrid Undset, Jacques Maritain, Philip Murray, Frank J. Sheed, Arnold Walter, George S. Sperti, Richard Pattee, Henry Ford II, Etienne Gilson, Paul Doyon, Christopher Dawson, John C. H. Wu, Charles Malik, Ivan Mestrovic, and F. W. Foerster, in 1956 was awarded to Hon. Paul Martin. Annually bestowed on "some outstanding lay exponent of Christian ideals," the Christian Culture Award Medal this year will go to Canada's present Minister of National Health and Welfare, who is also her present head of the Canadian Delegation to the U.N. For over two decades, Mr. Martin has brought a splendid Christian humanist approach to educational, social and political problems to international as well as national affairs.

So now let us fancy our Seythian, or Armenian, or African, or Italian, or Gallic student, after tossing on the Saronic waves, which would be his more ordinary course to Athens, at last casting anchor at Piraeus. He is of any condition or rank of life you please and may be made to order, from a prince to a peasant. Perhaps he is some Cleanthes, who has been a boxer in the public games. How did it ever cross his brain to take himself to Athens in search of wisdom? or, if he came thither by accident, how did the love of it ever touch his heart?

WESTERN TRAMPLES ASSUMPTION RAIDERS 76-66

On Saturday, January 21, 2000 fans packed St. Denis Hall and cheered in vain as our Purple Raiders were handed their first defeat (home) in conference play since the 1952-53 season by the Western Mustangs. Led by rangy Ray Mannot who scored 31 points, the Westerners were nevertheless hard pressed all the way as they eked out a 76-66 win.

Although Western held a 34-29 half-time bulge, the lead changed hands five times and the score was tied on six occasions.

Larry Connorton, though fouling out midway through the last period, paced the Raider offense with 16 points. MacKenzie played the entire 40 minutes holding Mannot to a mere seven points in the first half and pushing 10 counters through the hoops himself. Hugh Coyle and George Joseph exemplified the drive and determination of the smaller Raider quintet as they scored 13 and 12 points respectively. Paul Metzger, Mike Spang, Howie Triano and Neil MacEwan played commendably for the tri-colour cause and earned praise for their admirable attempts to stop the giant Mannot.

TRIANO SCORES! McGILL BOWS 85-53

On Saturday, February 4, at St. Denis Hall, our Purple Raiders scalped a weary McGill University squad. It was an important win for the Purple Pack as it netted them undisputed possession of second place in the Senior Intercollegiate League.

Assumption had little trouble with the Redmen as they led 6-0 in the early seconds and opened up a 12 point spread, 21-9 after the first 10 minutes. McGill then rallied and closed the gap at half time to 36-28. Then the Raiders' fast break really rolled. After intermission the boys of the Purple, White and Gold laced into their visitors and piled up 49 points while holding the opposition to a mere 25 markers.

Assumption made 31 out of 72 from the field whereas McGill clicked on 23 out of 59. At the charity strip Assumption tossed in 23 out of 33 tries to McGill's seven for 19.

Howie Triano struck for 20 points, highest in three years as a varsity cager: George Joseph followed him closely with 18, and Larry Connorton and Matt Borowiec each hit for 11 points while Dick MacKenzie and Hugh Coyle potted eight and six points respectively.

THE CRUSADERS

Under the capable guidance of Coach Bernie Hogan the Crusaders completed a championship 1955-56 schedule. With an impressive 23 victories in 25 contests they ended the year taking both Intermediate Intercollegiate and Windsor and District Basketball crowns. The Junior Varsity posted an 8 to 1 mark in the college ranks to retain for the second season in a row the Intermediate crown and piled a 15 to 1 record in the Windsor City League to capture the Rogin's Sport Store Trophy.

Captained by Phil Mazzone and with such players as Jerry Kotwas, Jack Hool, Steve Demko, and Tom Brook, the Crusaders were one of the best and classiest hoop squads in Southwestern Ontario. Jerry Kotwas of Rochester, New York, a small but explosive forward, was top goal-getter with 576 points, averaging 24 points per game. Steve Demko of Niagara Falls, Ontario, also starred as forward in the well-precisioned Crusader squad. Tom Brook, a lanky six foot-five, another Rochester lad, who although he had never played in organized basketball before coming to Assumption, proved his worth and capabilities with his fine rebounding and deceptive play. From Michigan, Jack Hool, a hard working guard, was invaluable to the team. The ever fighting pilot of the Crusaders, Phil Mazzone, helped bring the team to two championships.

With reserve power coming from such players as Mike Spang, Dick Kennedy, Terry Collins, Paul Pennington, Fred DeVriendt, Paul Renaud and Ron Gerrard, Bernie Hogan was able to mould and frame the Assumption Crusaders into one of the best hard fighting basketball squads Assumption has ever seen.

MEN'S INTRAMURAL BOWLING LEAGUE

Bowling this year has had an inspiration which hasn't been seen for many years at Assumption. The bowler's participation is as high as 97% and it seems that the close competition is the cause of it all. Every Wednesday at four o'clock Campus Recreation is swamped by at least 60 Assumptionites who incidentally now are bowling according to the constitution adopted by the league, which gives up a foundation never before known to the "keglers."

Bowling a doubles tournament is a way to make a few dollars if you feel you can win. The league had two of these tournaments which makes for even keener competition because there is money to be won. The bowling lasted almost the entire length of the school session and it was sure a time of relief to be able to take your anger out on the "10 woods!"

Fred Lang, F. Chin Lee, J. Leonard, F. Nowak, A. Chin Lee.

Water seems to inspire sport and relaxation. These two elements were combined to introduce a new intramural sport in the University . . . Water Polo. Those who participated took the sport up with the heated competition of professionals. The league proved to be a pleasant success.

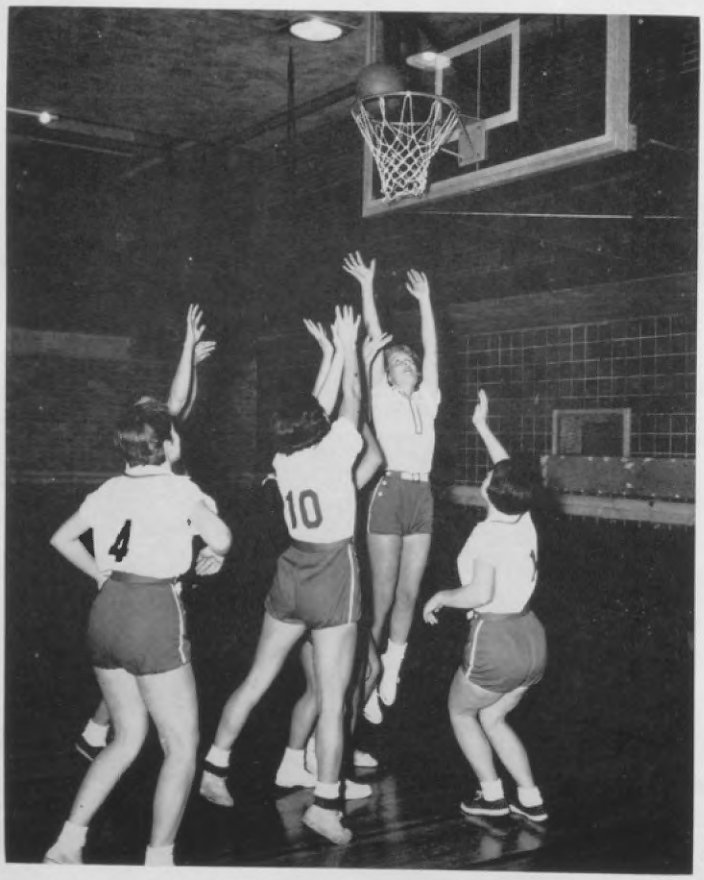

Front Row: J. McNab, E. Sabga, H. Dillon.

EVERYBODY UP

A SYMPHONY IN . . .

All that goes to constitute a gentleman—the carriage, gait, address, gestures, voice; the ease, the self-possession, the courtesy, the power of conversing, the talent of not offending . . . these qualities, some of them come by nature, some of them may be found in any rank, some of them are a direct precept of Christianity; but the full assemblage of them, bound up in the unity of an individual character, do we expect they can be learned from books? . . . you cannot learn to converse till you have the world to converse with; you cannot unlearn your natural bashfulness, or awkwardness or stiffness, or other besetting deformity, till you serve your time in some school of manners.

THE ARTS BALL—APRIL 1955

Candidates for Queen: Frances O'Connor, Lynn Toth, Queen Betty Sheridan, Marcia Marentate, Mary Jo Brennan.

Last April was the 25th anniversary of the Arts Ball. In keeping with this, the stage was built as a tiered birthday cake, complete with candles and simulated icing. In a setting to carry out the birthday theme, here are some scenes of the Arts Ball, the highlight of the Assumption social year.

A BRIGHT FUTURE??

Prom 23 for those who are still wondering is put on by the Sophomore and Junior or 2nd and 3rd classes, and hence the name Prom 23.

This year this last big dance before Lent was held at Teutonia Hall. This was the first dance Assumption ever held there and all were pleasantly surprised by the roomy facilities of this Bohemian ballroom.

Since the dance was so close to St. Valentine's day, the theme was built around hearts and cupids as can be seen in the picture at the left.

Fr. LeBel celebrates Mass for the students Sunday morning in the College Chapel.

Ave Maria

Knowledge is one thing, Virtue is another; good sense is not conscience, refinement is not humility, nor is largeness of mind and justness of view, Faith. Philosophy however enlightened, however profound, gives no command over the passions, no influential motives, no vivifying principles. . . . Quarry in granite rock with razors, or moor the vessel with a thread of silk; then you may hope, with such keen and delicate instruments as human knowledge and human reason to contend against those giants, the passion and the pride of man.

THIRD ANNUAL CONVOCATION

JUNE 4, 1955

The academic procession moves impressively from the Administration Building to Assumption Church for the celebration of the Baccalaureate Mass.

At the doors of St. Denis Hall, the academic procession pauses briefly before entering into the Third Annual Spring Convocation.

The new Bachelors
happy and thoughtful. (Ha ha)

HONORARY DOCTORS

His Excellency the Chancellor confers on Henri Leopold Mason, Canadian artist and sculptor, the degree of Doctor of Laws honoris causa.

Seated on the dias during Convocation Ceremonies: Fr. E. C. LeBel, C.S.B., President of the University; Fr. H. P. Coughlin, C.S.B., First Councillor of the Basilian Fathers; Mr. A. F. Firth, Chairman of the University Board of Regents; Fr. L. J. Bondy, C.S.B., General Councillor of the Basilian Fathers; Fr. L. K. Shook, C.S.B., President of St. Michael's College in the University of Toronto.

In array, the honored doctors stand: Henri Leopold Mason; Fr. Henry Carr, C.S.B.; Most Rev. John C. Cody, Bishop of London, Chancellor of the University; Fr. E. C. LeBel, C.S.B., Vice-Chancellor and President of the University; Edwin John Pratt, Hans Selye, Walter Palmer Thompson.

It is a place which wins the admiration of the young
by its celebrity,
kindles the middle-aged by its beauty,
and rivets the fidelity of the old by its associations.
It is a seat of wisdom,
a light of the world,
a minister of faith,
an Alma Mater of the rising generation.
It is this and a great deal more . . .
Such is a University
in its idea and its purpose; . . .
We are going forward
in the strength of the Cross,
under the patronage of the Blessed Virgin . . .
. . . to attempt it.

—JOHN HENRY NEWMAN

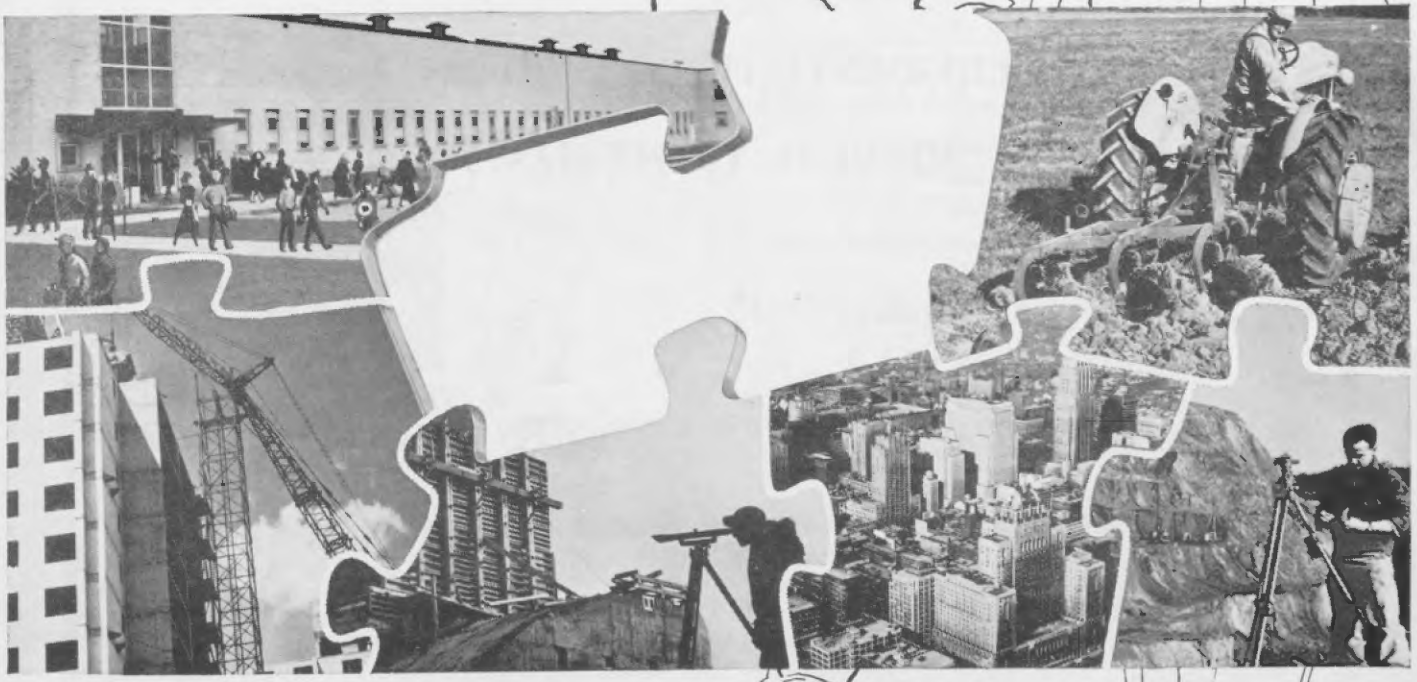

In the pattern of Canada's future the key piece is you!

In this fortunate country of ours we have all the materials needed to build a prosperous future—the power and the wealth, the abundant resources of mine and forest, of field and fishery. But in one resource we face a serious and growing shortage—in capable leaders, in men and women with the necessary skills and adequate training to share in the responsibilities and rewards of a rapidly growing nation.

If you plan to grow with Canada, now is the time to take full advantage of the educational opportunities your country provides . . . so that you will be prepared to help meet the exciting, exacting demands of a nation marching forward to new greatness.

In the pattern of Canada's future, the key piece is you!

THE FORWARD LOOK

is everywhere in Canada!

You're just in time—big things are happening in this fine land of ours!

All across Canada, a dynamic new kind of progress and growth has taken form in the last decade. Commerce. Industry. Agriculture. They're bursting with new vitality—and still gaining momentum.

And you're in on all this, now!

In our own business, we at Chrysler call this fresh, go-ahead spirit the Forward Look. It takes the form of new plants and new techniques for doing things better. And it finds dramatic expression in the sleek new styling of our cars.

It's a wonderful time to be young and just starting out. There are great things to be done, and rich rewards to be won. The Forward Look is everywhere in Canada, and it promises an even brighter future for us all.

A Thought for Students

Very few students take sound safety advice very seriously. More often than not, they promise to observe safety rules, but are soon forgetful when they are behind the wheel of a car. It seems to give them a sense of power—a sense of being more than they really are.

Someone always pays for an accident, and that someone may one day be you. Remember: alcohol, speed, and thoughtlessness do not combine to fill the proper prescription for driving safety.

Drive carefully throughout every day of the year. The famous slogan should always hold true—"Drive carefully! The life you save may be your own."

J. E. Hett, M.D.
